

ArtReview

AR NEWS REVIEWS PREVIEWS FEATURES VIDEO OPINION POWER 100

SEARCH >

Broomberg & Chanarin, Woman's Hour and the pop art, art pop crossover
Eddy Frankel talks to Deutsche Börse Photography prize-winning artists Broomberg & Chanarin, ahead of the release of their latest video for the band Woman's Hour

Crossing the Line
Glasgow Film Festival's artist based strand of screenings and events, 20 February - 2 March 2014

Etat du Ciel (State of the Sky), Palais de Tokyo, 2014
Find out what's in the Palais de Tokyo's new season of exhibitions and events

Ernesto Neto: The Body that Carries Me
One of Brazil's greatest living artists comes to Bilbao, to 18 May

Ten exhibitions on through January & February 2014 you won't want to miss in Høvikodden, Rotterdam, São Paulo, London, Los Angeles, Cartagena, Mexico City, Edinburgh, and New York
By Martin Herbert

PREVIEW

Sluice Art Fair

19-20 October, 47/49 Tanner Street, London

Paula Wall, Blackwater Polytechnic, Sluice Art Fair 2013

Following its launch in 2011 (and a hiatus last year), Sluice, the fair for largely artist-run projects and galleries returns for a second year, in a new location – a three-storey Victorian warehouse in Bermondsey. Among the 37 participants from the UK, Europe and US are Blackwater Polytechnic, Aid and Abet, Vane, Dalla Rosa and Schema Projects.

RELATED

AR NEWS REVIEWS PREVIEWS FEATURES VIDEO OPINION POWER 100

SEARCH >

Tweet Like 26